

Web site provides details on I-94 construction

CONSTRUCTION began last year on a seven-year effort to improve I-94 between the Illinois-Wisconsin border and Milwaukee. Work will include the important airport spur to Mitchell International Airport.

Travelers have been advised by the Wisconsin Department of Transportation to visit www.Plan94.org in order to obtain updates on the project, including driving directions around construction, current traffic conditions, current and upcoming road closure information and planned future closures.